

Detection and Monitoring Hub Privacy Statement

Last updated: February 2020.

Introduction

Detection and Monitoring Hub is an offering of PwC Advisory Product Sales LLC, a member of the PricewaterhouseCoopers global network of firms. Each PricewaterhouseCoopers member firm is a separate legal entity. For further details, please see www.pwc.com/structure.

PwC is strongly committed to protecting your privacy. Please review this privacy statement (“Privacy Statement”) for an explanation of the privacy practices of PwC Advisory Product Sales LLC (“PwC”, “we”, or “us”) for Detection and Monitoring Hub (referred to as the “Application”). This Privacy Statement explains the types of information we collect when you access or use Detection and Monitoring Hub and how we use, share, and protect that information.

Note, this privacy statement applies solely to Detection and Monitoring Hub and does not apply to other PwC websites or applications. Further, this privacy statement does not apply to information we may collect offline.

Information Collection

When you access or otherwise use our Application, we will collect information about you and how you interact with our Site/Application. We collect information about you through: (1) information you provide; (2) automatic tracking technologies; and (3) third parties.

Information You Provide

We collect information, including personal information that you provide. PwC will collect limited personal information as part of the user registration process, either directly from you or transferred to PwC by your employer or an organization with which you are affiliated, including your name and business contact information, such as your email address and phone number. We also collect information about your device, browser, IP address and location when you log on and use Detection and Monitoring Hub.

Companies licensing Detection and Monitoring Hub (“Companies”) may request that third parties provide additional personal information through survey responses into Detection and Monitoring Hub.

Companies may also request that PwC assists them in collecting additional personal information about these third parties from publicly accessible data sources. PwC processes such information under the direction of such Companies, and has no ownership of such information. PwC also is not responsible for how Companies use such information. Companies are responsible for complying with any regulations or laws that require providing notice, disclosure, and/or obtaining consent prior to the collection and processing of such information. Please do not provide information about yourself or otherwise that you do not wish for PwC or the applicable Company to collect, use, or otherwise process. If you have any concerns or questions about the collection and processing of your personal information, please contact the Company in question.

Automatically Collected Information

We may use online identification technologies, such as cookies (“Tracking Technologies”). The information we collect using these technologies includes: IP address, browser type and language, access time, and referring website. Cookies are small text files placed on your hard drive that assist us in providing a more customized website experience. For example, a cookie can be used to store registration information in an area of the website so that a user does not need to re-enter it on subsequent visits to that area.

Third-Party Analytics

The collection of your personal data on the website/application will be facilitated by Microsoft Azure. PwC also uses website analytics providers which may set cookies in your browser. Site activity information collected by these analytics providers may be combined with personal information held by PwC. For more information about these third-party tools, please review our Cookie Disclosure.

If you are concerned about cookies, most browsers permit individuals to decline cookies. In most cases, you may refuse or delete one or more cookies and still access the Site, but Site functionality may be impaired. After you finish browsing the Site, you may delete Site cookies from your system if you wish.

Information Use

We use the information we collect as described above for various purposes depending on the context in which we collected such information. For example, it may be necessary for us to process your information in order to process a transaction or provide a service you have requested or otherwise in accordance with a contract between us, or we may process your information in accordance with your prior consent (where you have provided such consent).

We also use the information we collect for our legitimate business interests, such as:

- To create an account for users to enable them to access and use Detection and Monitoring Hub
- Operating and improving the Site
- Fulfilling your orders and requests
- Managing your registration preferences
- Customizing the Site for you
- Understanding how the Site is being used
- Exploring ways to develop and grow our business
- Maintaining and improving the safety and security of the Site
- Enhancing protection against fraud, spam, harassment, intellectual property infringement, crime and security risks
- Sending you renewal notifications and/or service notifications
- Emailing you information about new features and special offers
- Conducting customer satisfaction surveys
- Running our operations
- Complying with law and legal obligations
- Maintaining and improving security
- Preventing fraud
- Improving our products and services
- Communicating with you
- Responding to your inquiries
- Sending communications about PwC products, services, and events
- Notifying you when updates are available

Detection and Monitoring Hub does not intend to collect or compile personal information for dissemination or sale to outside parties for consumer marketing purposes, or host mailings on behalf of third parties.

Information Sharing

We are part of a global network of firms. In common with other professional service providers, PwC may transfer or disclose the information it collects, including your information, to third party contractors, subcontractors, subsidiaries and/or other PwC firms for the purposes for which you have submitted the information and for the administration of our system or Site and/or other internal, administrative purposes. We transfer your information to third party service providers of identity management, website hosting and management, data analysis, data backup, security and storage services.

PwC may disclose information to third parties under the following circumstances:

- As required by applicable law, statute, rule, regulation or professional standard, or through subpoena, search warrant or other legal process
- For regulatory compliance purposes

- When explicitly requested by a user
- When required to deliver publications or reference materials requested by a visitor
- When required to facilitate conferences or events hosted by a third party • Or otherwise as set out in this statement

Information Transfer; Privacy Shield Notice

Your information may be transferred outside of the U.S. or your country of residence. This includes to countries outside the European Economic Area (“EEA”) and to countries that do not have laws that provide the same degree of protection for personal information. We have taken steps designed to ensure adequate protection for any information so transferred.

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP and its affiliated U.S. subsidiaries adhere to the EU - U.S. Privacy Shield Framework and the Swiss - U.S. Privacy Shield Framework as set forth by the U.S. Department of Commerce regarding the collection, use and retention of personal information that is transferred from the EEA, its Member States, the United Kingdom, and/or Switzerland to the United States. PwC has certified that it adheres to the Privacy Shield Principles within the scope of PwC’s Privacy Shield certification. To learn more, see our Privacy Shield Policy.

Where we transfer personal information outside of the EEA to a country or framework not determined by the European Commission as providing an adequate level of protection for personal information, the transfers will be under an agreement which covers European Union requirements for such transfers, such as standard contractual clauses. The European Commission approved standard contractual clauses are available here.

Third Party Sites

Detection and Monitoring Hub may link to other websites which do not operate under PwC's privacy practices. When you link to other websites, PwC's privacy practices no longer apply. We encourage you to review each site's privacy policy before disclosing any personally identifiable information. Do Not Track Do Not Track (“DNT”) is a privacy preference that you can set in your web browser to send a message to the website operator requesting not to be tracked. Currently, we do not respond to these DNT signals. For more information about DNT, visit <https://allaboutdnt.com/>.

Your Choices

Unsubscribe

Should you wish to unsubscribe from our mailing list or any registrations, we will provide instructions within the appropriate area of Detection and Monitoring Hub or in communications to you; or you may contact us at: the email provided in the Engagement Letter.

Managing Cookies

If you are concerned about cookies, most browsers permit individuals to decline cookies. In most cases, you may refuse or delete one or more cookies and still access Detection and Monitoring Hub, but Site functionality may be impaired. After you finish browsing our websites, you may delete Detection and Monitoring Hub cookies from your system if you wish.

In order to properly manage Detection and Monitoring Hub we also log anonymous information on our operational systems and identify categories of visitors by items such as domains and browser types. These statistics are reported in the aggregate to our webmasters. This is to ensure that Detection and Monitoring Hub presents the best web experience for visitors and is an effective information resource.

Access

If you would like to update your information or request to have outdated information removed, please contact us at: the email provided in the Engagement Letter.

Rights

In certain circumstances, under applicable law, you may have the right to access or obtain a copy of your personal information, to rectify your personal information, to have your personal information deleted, to restrict the processing of your personal information, to object to the processing of your personal information, to data portability, and to withdraw your consent for processing (where processing is based on your consent). Please note that if you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide you the services for which it was necessary to process your information based on your consent. To submit a request relating to any of these rights, please email us at us_privacy_office@pwc.com. We will respond to your request within a reasonable timeframe.

We hope that you won't ever need to, but if you do want to complain about our use of personal information, please send an email with the details of your complaint to us_privacy_office@pwc.com. You may also contact our EU Representative, PwC Malta, at us_firm_eu_rep@pwc.com. Applicable laws may also give you the right to lodge a complaint with the data protection authority in your country.

Security

PwC has implemented generally accepted standards of technology and operational security designed to protect personal information from loss, misuse, alteration or destruction. Only authorized PwC personnel are provided access to personal information and these employees have agreed to maintain the confidentiality of this information.

Children

PwC understands the importance of protecting children's privacy, especially in an online environment. Detection and Monitoring Hub is not intentionally designed for or directed at children under the age of 13 years. It is PwC's policy never to knowingly collect or maintain personal information about children under the age of 13.

Data Retention

We will retain the personal information collected by us through Detection and Monitoring Hub for as long as is necessary for the purpose(s) for which it was collected as set out in this Privacy Statement, provided that personal information may be held for longer periods where extended retention periods are required by law, regulation and/or professional standards, and in order to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights.

Modifications

PwC may update this Privacy Statement at any time by publishing an updated version here. You can access the most current version of this privacy statement at any time on this Detection and Monitoring Hub.
